I do not think I carry in mind lists of securities in any of these cases. Q. These bank balances show that on September 30, 1907, there was deposited in the Hudson Trust Company, 148, 060; in the Union Bank of Brooklyn, 130, 000; in the Mercantile National Bank, 166, 234; in the Consolidated National Bank, 105, 138. These banks which I have named are Thomas banks A. I only know from what I have heard recently. Q. And on October 21, 1907, Monday of last week, there was practically the same amount remaining on deposit in these four banks A. I do not know the amounts. I know we authorized summary action in the transfer. Q. And that was practically the sum of 1, 173, 293 deposited in various banks A. Mr. Wolf said the deposits we were most interested in was something...
