A greatly needed book at a time when creativity, curiosity and problem solving are moving over to make room for high-pressure academics. Loaded with good ideas for activities. The author s creativity shows! - Janet Gonzalez-Mena, Consultant and Early Childhood Specialist Author, Dragon Mom and Diversity in Early Care and Education Patricia Dischler s hands-on experience and love of early learning radiate throughout Teaching the 3 C s. As a defender of childhood, I am most impressed by the way she promotes play, exploration, and discovery in simple and engaging ways. Put down the video games, turn off the TV, and pick up this book - Jeff A. Johnson, Owner Explorations Early Learning LLC Research shows that children with positive social skills, a creative nature, and a love of learning are more likely to experience success in later school years. However, today s emphasis on early exposure to academic content means little attention is given to developing the affective skills that can make a critical difference in a child s future. Based on her extensive experience in early childhood education,...
