His family emigrated to America in 1873. Young Petrosino decided to become a cop after shining patrolmens shoes outside of police headquarters on Mulberry Street. In his teens applied to the Irish dominated force but was rejected. He was too short, too swarthy, spoke with an accent and wasnt Irish. An Italian woman rag-picker in her living space, with her packs of junk, few possessions including her straw hat hung on the wall behind her, and a child in her lap. In 1878 Petrosino became a City street sweeper and won a promotion to foreman within a year. In 1879, Petrosino got a break when Police Captain Alexander Clubber Williams was assigned to command the street cleaning department. The New York City Police force if the mid- nineteenth-century was full of goons, enforcers, thieves and extortionists. Some precincts were richer than others and offered more graft and gravy and for the many crooked cops on the force, the idea was to get assigned to the more lucrative areas such as the 29th, the fashionable red-light district on the West Side below 42nd Street. Here, the sex trade was protected by the police who in turn paid off the local political machine, Tammany. In 1876, when police Capt. Alexander Clubber Williams was transferred there with the announcement Boys Ive had nothing but chuck steak for a long time, and now Im going to get a little of the tenderloin. And hence the Tenderloin was named. Williams was brutal, thoroughly corrupt cop. There is he once...
