Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Building Stones of Ohio The usefulness of the Survey is not limited to the preparation of formal reports on important topics. There is a constant and insistent desire on the part of the people to use it as a technical bureau for free advice in all matters affecting the geology or mineral industries of the State. A very considerable correspondence comes in, increasing rather than decreasing in amount, and asking specific and particular questions on points in local geology. The volume of this correspondence has made it necessary to adopt a uniform method of dealing with these requests. Not all of them can be granted, but some can and should be answered. There is a certain element of justice in the people demanding such information, from the fact that the geological reports issued in former years were not so distributed as to make them accessible to the average man or community today. The cases commonly covered by correspondence may be classified as follows: 1st. Requests for information covered by previous publications. - This is furnished where the time required for copying the answer is not too large. Where the portion desired cannot be copied, the inquirer is told in what volume and page it occurs and advised how to proceed to get access to a copy of the report. 2nd. Requests for identification of -minerals and fossils. - This is done, where possible. As a rule, the minerals and fossils are simple and familiar forms, which can be named at once. In occasional cases, a critical knowledge is required and time for investigation is necessary. Each assistant is expected to co-operate with the State Geologist...
