William Mitchel, Assistant Chief, Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, and Capt. T. T. Craven, Director of Naval Aviation, were among officials in the grandstand which seated also many members of the diplomatic corps. Major Arthur Christie, Commanding Officer at Mitchel Field, was congratulated for the excellent arrangements made under his supervision. It was significant that thousands had watched so many planes racing in close formation without serious accident to planes, pilots or onlookers, while that same day at several especially prepared speedways in the United States motor cars crashed and hurled their drivers to instant death. Besides the handsome trophy donated by Ralph Pulitzer of the New York World, there were the Valentine Liberty bonds, aggregating $5,100, for class prizes. The first plane to hop off was the...
