Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Observations on the Declaration of Independence: With a Critical Examination of the Facts Attending Its Attestation In the first named letter, September 26, 1796, in speaking of the printed journals, Mr. McKean says: By the printed publications referred to, it would appear as if the fifty-five gentlemen whose names are there printed, and none other, were on that day personally present in congress and assenting to the Declaration; whereas the truth is otherwise. Modesty should not rob any man of his just honor, when by that honor his modesty cannot be offended. My name is not in the printed journals of congress as a party to the Declaration of Independence; and this, like an error of the first concoction, has vitiated most of the subsequent publications; and yet the fact is, that I was then a member of congress for the state of Delaware, was personally present in congress, and voted in favor of independence on the fourth of July, 1776, and signed the declaration after it had been engrossed on parchment, where my name in my own handwriting still appears. I do not know how the misstatement in the printed journals has happened. The manuscript public journal has no names annexed to the Declaration of Independence, nor has the secret journal; but it appears by the latter, that on the nineteenth day of July, 1776, the congress directed that it should be engrossed on parchment and signed by every member, and that it was so produced on the second of August, and signed. This is interlined in the secret journal, in the handwriting of Charles Thomson, esquire, the secretary. The present secretary of state...
