Andrew Murray Howe V, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A compendium of 78 sure-fire excuses with humorously all-too-real applications for any candidate who is down in the polls, makes that unfortunate gaffe, needs to energize a lagging campaign, or has the temerity to actually lose an election. A must-have for politicians, pundits, campaign staffers, volunteers, and voters of every party. It is recommended to be applied any time the press will be within two miles of your candidate. The perfect political gift for the Politico in your life. No. 3 We don t pay attention to polls. Aka [When those polls are killing us] Use this phrase in many circumstances including when your candidate drops twenty-six points in all polls after it is discovered he paid the woman next door to take a urine drug test for him and the lab results came back that he is pregnant. No. 11 Opponent is pandering to the right. Use when your candidate s opponent ends a speech with God Bless America. No. 12 Opponent is pandering to the left. Use when your candidate s opponent starts a speech with My Fellow Americans. No. 65 We make the tough decisions. Aka [With our collective IQ, EVERY decision is a tough one] Use to shake up the polls when your incumbent candidate approves a budget measure to repair potholes. No. 77 The better candidate won. AKA [Only if we won. If not, screw them] The absolute worst excuse ever. Although it is rumored to have been around since the early days of political races in Athens, I cannot find an example of it actually having been used. Don t even think about using it until your candidate...
