A table toward the front with a chair near it. A door leading to the right, toward the front, and another at the rear. A dry-goods box should be placed at the left side and piles of clothing, books, etc., should be lying about. Enter Jule Pomeroy, carrying a feather duster in one hand and a pair of men's boots in the other. Puts down the boots and begins to dust; heaves a sigh and pauses. Jule. Oh, dear! I guess I'm tired of playing poor girl. (Drops into a chair and pushes back her hair.) It isn't any joke working for one's board, it's work - work - work from morning till night! (Pause.) Just think, I haven't had a whole pound of chocolates since I came here last fall, and only two ice-cream sodas, and those I was treated to. I wonder what made me such a goose! The...
